Good Afternoon Greg

In response to your email of this morning, I provide the following for your information.

11.1.1 Major Event Sponsorship Application – this report may include details relating to finances and operations and the value of potential sponsorship arrangements which may compromise our negotiating position with other potential competitors/sponsors.

11.3.1 Disposal of Land, Maroochydore - this report may include information that impacts on properties and investments and disposal strategies and if made public may prejudice the interests of Council and thereby the community. Price ranges and addresses of properties may be mentioned.

11.3.2 Purchase of Land, Cambroon – this report may include information that impacts on properties and investments and if made public may prejudice the interests of Council and thereby the community. Price ranges and addresses of properties may be mentioned.

11.5.1 Proposed Land Acquisitions, Yandina Creek – this report may include information that impacts on properties and investments and if made public may prejudice the interests of Council and thereby the community. Price ranges and addresses of properties may be mentioned.

11.5.2 Caloundra South Community Development Infrastructure Fund – this report may provide financial details and strategies relating to the Infrastructure Fund. If made public it may prejudice the interests of Council in its commercial negotiations with developers and thereby may result in a lower financial outcome to the community.
