Hi Greg

Thank you for your email regarding OSCAR's submission on the local government reform process.

The first tranche of stakeholder engagement has been completed and I am currently processing the information received with the view of formulating policy options for the Government.

I would expect that the next tranche of engagement on the policy options developed may occur in the first half of 2019 sometime after April.

Again, I would like to extend my thanks to you and your organisation in discussing these issues with me.

Hi Tim

I hope 2019 has started well for you.

In light of the submissions we made via you on local government reform and the meetings you have had with OSCAR and similar organisations such as the SEQA, Redlands 2030 etc I was wondering if you can provide us with an update on how the reform process is progressing.

I am well aware that you cannot provide us with details on the internal discussions occurring between the Department and the Minister but it may be possible for you to provide me with an update I can share with OSCAR's members.

Any information you can provide will be appreciated.

Best wishes ... Greg
