

Clive Waring – Candidate for Division 5

Clive is a seventh generation Australian, but was educated in England. Clive and his wife Elizabeth- a Nurse at Selangor Hospital in Nambour - built a carbon positive home in Maleny 10 years ago, and are both passionate about the hinterland lifestyle.

Clive has a forty year background in the photography industry: operating studios in Sydney, Brisbane, London and Hamburg. During the 1990s he was a consultant for Polaroid and responsible for Queensland Department of Transport, Department of Health and Queensland Police; which provided valuable knowledge of Government purchase procedures. In the late 1990s he established a company for the import and distribution from UK photographic manufacturers. During the last 17 years Clive has travelled across North America and Europe as the editor for the Silvershotz magazine; his tenure finished in November 2019.

“I describe myself as a workaholic with a lot of energy to burn, someone who has to have major life goals to pursue and accomplish. Travelling the world on business for 25 years heightens my awareness of the destruction of the planet, and just how special the Sunshine Coast Hinterland biosphere is, and it must be protected at all costs”.

Clive has recently joined a network of Australian scientists and researchers on Energy security, Climate change minimization techniques, integration of alternative energy sources, waste recycling innovations, food production ( commercial and home) sustainability, and minimizing Electro-Magnetic radiation from communication towers. The combination of addressing all these issues provides a healthier lifestyle; and local Council can implement smarter and safer procedures. “I look forward to joining a progressive council to provide strategic direction, whilst delivering infrastructure and supporting community’s needs.”

“I am Apolitical; which means I am not interested in politics, but I am optimistic about the efficiency of local government as a strong organization that delivers exceptional services to the community. As an Independent candidate I don't have ties to a traditional party group, which means I can be flexible and act in the best interests of the electorate.

“I would like to acknowledge the extraordinary efforts of Councillor Jenny McKay during her 20 year tenure of Division 5. I wish her a well deserved rest, and if elected, I promise to do everything I can to continue her legacy.”
